

Annual Immersion Courses in Scotland For Primary and Secondary School Teachers of English 2011 Supported by the European Union COMENIUS Programme

About us

LFEE Europe has been a Comenius course provider since 2002. Our partnership with Confluence Scotland has produced a successful team of experienced and fully qualified native speaker teachers, committed to promoting English language and English-speaking culture in Europe. This is our 9th year under this European Union programme and our expertise in delivering In-Service training courses is now recognised by many National Agencies. Our courses are registered on the Comenius-Grundtvig Training Database.

All participants receive support of up to 2,500 Euros from the European Union COMENIUS/GRUNDTVIG Lifelong Learning Programme available through their own National Agency. The grant fully covers the course fee, subsistence and accommodation, cultural excursions, as well as travel expenses.

About the courses

The venue is Edinburgh, capital of Scotland, a UNESCO World Heritage City. The course includes information on the different UK education systems and also on Scotland's culture and history.

Please note that these courses are not suitable for beginners. The training sessions are delivered in English. Participants will be encouraged to speak English as much as possible in social situations and on the cultural excursions.

Aims for primary school teachers' course

- To improve methodological expertise in the teaching of English to young learners
- To provide participants with materials and ideas suitable for English in the primary level
- To develop cultural awareness and understanding of contemporary Britain
- To improve participants' competence and performance in English
- To use Internet and other ICT resources in the classroom.

Aims for secondary school teachers' course

- To develop cultural awareness and understanding of contemporary Britain
- To enhance methodological expertise in the teaching of English to teenagers
- To enhance participants' discursive skills, update their vocabulary and gain new ideas and materials for use in the classroom
- To use Internet and other ICT resources in the classroom
- To use novels, songs, medias and short stories in the classroom
- To debate current issues and to (re)discover contemporary British personalities.

Follow-up

Teachers will receive a certificate at the end of the week and will also have the opportunity to join a Europe/UK-wide network of all participants.
